BUSINESS UPDATE

April 2022 | Vol. 39, Issue 4a

Greetings from the Chamber

Brian Gardanier - APS

Chairperson, Board of Directors

The Chamber focuses on bringing value to all of our member businesses. It is up to each member to choose their own level of involvement in the Chamber. For instance, the model for some businesses may include attending Chamber events and educational programs, joining Business Ambassadors, volunteering, and building their own business networks in person with fellow business owners. Others, such as venue owners or managers, may find that their business benefits from hosting Chamber events, and promoting their businesses through exclusive advertising in Chamber print and/or digital communications.

Other Chamber-member businesses may want to focus on team building and leadership development in the community, taking part in Chamber groups such as Government Affairs, or smaller, focused groups like Healthcare Roundtable or Young Professionals Network to exchange ideas and discuss issues of mutual concern. They may be interested in sponsoring events or programs, too. Larger-employer businesses may find value in larger Chamber events such as the Fall Golf Tournament or Annual Dinner/Awards presentation. These members may have less time to participate in other Chamber events and programs but recognize the importance of supporting the community.

What level of involvement is best for you and your business? For a refresher about the many ways you can maximize your Chamber membership, contact membership@casagrandechamber.org.
